Introduction

This register contains instruments related to:

- delegation; and
- the appointment of authorised persons.

Delegations and the appointment of authorised persons are used to perform the functions prescribed in legislation.

The application of these powers permits the efficient, effective and timely delivery of services in accordance with legislation that is consistent with the Shire's Strategic Community Plan and commitment to a strong customer service focus.

Delegation is a formal means of empowering one entity to perform functions and duties that are otherwise reserved in legislation for another entity. Delegation is a tool used in government at all levels to enable the efficient and effective delivery of services while ensuring clarity regarding who is permitted to perform specific discretionary functions.

The appointment of authorised persons is a similar but distinct concept. Legislation occasionally enables a decision-making body or source of authority to appoint persons to perform specific tasks on their behalf. In this case, the authorising entity does not have the power themselves to perform the task and can only authorise others to do so. Legislative provisions related to enforcement often employ the appointment of authorised persons.

Local government exercises many of its functions through a combination of delegated powers and authorisations. This includes functions under the Local Government Act 1995 (the Act) but also legislation related to planning, dogs, cats, health, building, bush fire prevention and management and food safety.

Definitions

The terms used throughout this register are defined below:

“Delegate”: the person (named by position title or office) or entity ‘appointed’ by the delegator, to act in place of the delegator for the purpose of exercising an express power or duty.

“Delegation”: the process, prescribed in legislation, for assigning authority to exercise an express power or duty from the delegate to another person (named by position title or office) or an entity (the Delegate).

“Delegator”: the person (named by position title or office) or entity in which the written law vests an Express Power or Duty whom delegates that Express Power or Duty.

“Express Power or Duty”: a power or duty written (expressly) in legislation.

“Express Power to Delegate”: a power (procedure) written (expressly) in legislation that enables the devolution of an Express Power or Duty from a Delegator to a Delegate.

“Head of Power”: the legislation, which contains an express power to delegate and/or an express power or duty.

“Instrument of Delegation”: the written form of a delegation. Legislation requires delegation be provided in writing. The instrument of delegation communicates the delegation from the Delegator to the Delegate.

“Sub-delegate”: the person (named by position or title or office) or entity to which a Delegate has sub-delegated a power or duty, which has been delegated to that Delegate by the Delegator.

“Authorisations”: the written form that conveys an authorisation to an Authorised person.

“Conditions”: a description of when the delegation / authorisation can / cannot be used or the time frame for which the delegation / authorisation is valid.

“Special Requirements”: Additional requirements imposed by legislation.

Foundation for Delegation

Section 59 of the Interpretation Act 1984 prescribes the framework for how delegated authority must be structured in Western Australian law:

1. The written law (Head of Power) must include an Express Power to Delegate, which specifically enables a person (the Delegator) to make a delegation.
2. In that same written law, there must be an Express Power or Duty conferred or imposed on the Delegator and it must be capable of being delegated. This means that the power or duty proposed for delegation must be written in the same law as the Express Power to Delegate; and that written law must not prohibit the power or Duty from being delegated or contain limitations or conditions, which the proposed delegation exceeds.
3. The power to delegate cannot be delegated.
4. Delegations must be in writing (the instrument of delegation).
5. Delegations must be advised to the Delegate in writing.

The requirements for delegation prescribed in the Interpretation Act 1984, apply to all delegations under Western Australian Law, including the Act and all other Acts under which Local Government has duties and powers.

Review of Delegations

Section 5.46 of the Act requires that a review of the delegations made under the Act occurs at least once every financial year. In line with good governance principles, it is important that delegations and authorisations are reviewed regularly to ensure currency. The Shire reviews this register and instruments contained annually.

Standard Conditions of Delegations

In accordance with Section 5.71 of the Act and the Shire of Serpentine Jarrahdale’s Code of Conduct, if an employee has been delegated a power or duty relating to a matter in which the employee has an interest, that employee must not exercise the power or discharge the duty and must in the case of the CEO, disclose to the Shire President the nature of the interest, and in the case of any other employee, must disclose to the CEO the nature of the interest. The Act contains severe penalties for failure to comply.

Any delegation exercised shall comply with any laws and regulations in force, and the requirements of any Shire of Serpentine Jarrahdale local laws, Council policies and resolutions of Council.

Record of Actions and Decisions

If a person is exercising a power or duty that has been delegated under the Act, the Act requires that records be kept whenever the delegated authority is utilised (s5.46 (3)). Regulation 19 of the Local Government (Administration) Regulations 1996 prescribes the information required to be recorded:

- a) how the person exercised the power or discharged the duty;
- b) when the person exercised the power or discharged the duty; and
- c) the persons or classes of persons, other than council or committee members or employees of the local government, directly affected by the exercise of the power or the discharge of the duty.

The register details the recording and record keeping requirements associated with each delegation. Most exercised Council delegations must be recorded in the exercised delegation use register and are to be reported to Council in Friday Facts. It is important that the details of the person who exercised the delegation are recorded in the register. Only officers who are delegated authority can be make discretionary decisions under delegation.

Primary and Annual Returns

In accordance with sections 5.75 and 5.76 of the Act, the delegation of a power or duty to an employee under the Act or section 214 of the Planning and Development Act 2005 triggers the requirement to make disclosures in primary and annual returns. An employee to whom a duty or power is delegated under the Local Government Act 1995 is considered a 'designated employee' under section 5.74(1) of the Act.

The Act contains severe penalties (a fine of $10,000 or two years imprisonment) for failure to comply with this requirement. It is the responsibility of each individual employee to ensure compliance.

Matters which cannot be Delegated

Under section 5.43 of the Act the following powers in the Act cannot be delegated by Council to the Chief Executive Officer:

- Any power or duty that requires a decision of an absolute majority or special (75%) majority of the local government;
- Accepting a tender which exceeds an amount determined by the local government;
- Appointing an auditor;
- Acquiring or disposing of any property valued at an amount determined by the local government;
- Any of the local government's powers under section 5.98, 5.98A, 5.99, 5.99A and 5.100 of the Act;
- Borrowing money on behalf of the local government;
- Hearing or determining an objection of a kind referred to in section 9.5;
- The power under section 9.49A(4) to authorise a person to sign documents on behalf of the local government;
- Any power or duty that requires the approval of the Minister or Governor; or
- Such other duties or powers that may be prescribed by the Act.

Furthermore, the following regulations prescribe powers and duties which cannot be delegated to the CEO:

- Regulation 18G of the Local Government (Administration) Regulations 1996 prohibits the delegation to a CEO of the powers and duties under;
  - (a) Sections 7.12A2, 7.12A(3)(a) and 7.12A(4) of the Local Government Act 1995 (relating to meetings with auditors); and
  - (b) Regulations 18C and 18D (relating to the selection and appointment of CEO's and reviews of their performance)
- Regulation 6 of the Local Government (Financial Management) Regulations 1996 prohibits the delegation of the duty to conduct an internal audit to an employee (including a CEO) who has been delegated the duty of maintaining the local government's day to day accounts or financial management operations.

Delegation by the Chief Executive Officer to an Employee

Section 5.44.(1) of the Act allows for the Chief Executive Officer to delegate any of the powers to another employee other than the power of delegation. This must be done in writing as per section 5.44(2). The Act also allows for the Chief Executive Officer to place conditions on any delegations if desired under section 5.44(4).

A register of delegations relevant to the Chief Executive Officer and other employees is to be kept and reviewed at least once every financial year as per section 5.46(1) and (2) of the Act. If a person is exercising a power or duty that they have been delegated, the Act requires that records be kept whenever the delegated authority is exercised as per section 5.46(3) of the Act.

The record is to contain the following information:

- How the person exercised the power or discharged the duty;
- When the person exercised the power or discharged the duty; and
- The persons or classes of persons, other than council or committee members or employees of the local government, directly affected by the exercise of the power or the discharge of the duty under Regulation 19 of Local Government (Administration) Regulations 1996.

Business Units responsible for a work process are to ensure that data is captured and records managed in accordance with all legislation, as well as preparing reports to Council where required under a specific delegation. This includes recording of delegated authority of the Chief Executive Officer where applicable, once approved through a signed authority by the Chief Executive Officer.

A person to whom a power is delegated under the Act is considered to be a "designated employee" under section 5.74(1) of the Act and is required to complete a primary and annual return each year.

There is no power for a person other than the CEO to delegate a power as stated in section 5.44(1) of the Act.

Officers must refer to relevant legislation prior to making any decisions under delegated authority.

Acting through another person

The Local Government Act 1995 recognises that employees do not always need delegations (or sub delegations) to carry out their tasks and functions on behalf of the Shire. Section 5.45 (2) of the Act states:

Nothing in this Division (Division 4 - Local Government Employees) is to be read as preventing –

- a) a local government from performing any of its functions by acting through a person other than the Chief Executive Officer; or
- b) a Chief Executive Officer from performing any of his or her functions by acting through another person.

The key difference between a delegation and “acting through” is that a delegate exercises the delegated decision making function in his or her own right. Thus, an employee may pay an account or issue an approval if directed to do so by another employee who has the authority to make such a decision and chooses to “act through” another employee.

The principal issue is that where a person has no discretion in carrying out a function, then that function may be undertaken through the “acting through” concept. Alternatively, where the decision allows for discretion on the part of the decision maker, then that function needs to be delegated for another person to have that authority.

Using delegation to make decisions

Before using a delegated authority a delegate must familiarise themselves with the legislative framework that informs the decisions they will make under the Delegation. Care should be taken to understand the legislative process, conditions and limitations relevant to the statutory power or duty. The delegate must also consider and apply policy, procedures or standards that are relevant to the decisions they are empowered to make and also ensure that they comprehensively understand the legal framework that informs their decision making.

Conflicts of Interest

A conflict of interest arises where a personal interest is in conflict with the public interest. In accordance with sections 5.70 and 5.71 of the Local Government Act 1995, delegates must disclose any conflict of interest relating to advice or reports, or interests relating to delegated functions. An interest may require them to be removed from the decision making process.

A Delegate may refer the decision making back to the Delegator, where they consider there is a risk or sensitivity, which makes it more appropriate for the Delegator to make that decision.

The Shire’s Code of Conduct and Conflict of Interest BOP sets out the requirement for employees to immediately disclose interests that could be in conflict, or could be perceived to be in conflict with the performance of their public duties.

The Local Government Act 1995 contains severe penalties (a fine of $10,000 or two years imprisonment) for failure to comply with this requirement. It is the responsibility of each individual employee to ensure compliance.

Authorised Persons and Officers

Legislation can empower the appointment of authorised persons and officers to perform certain tasks. The appointment of an authorised person is typically, but not always, used in legislation to appoint classes of persons for the purposes of enforcing legislation. An authorisation is not a delegation and has its own set of requirements that are specified in the relevant head of power. These can include, but are not always, the requirement to be issued a certificate or identification card.

Authorised officers must be aware of their powers and responsibilities related to the exercising of their duties. These powers and responsibilities are summarised in the compliance link for each respective authorisation.

PART TWO: Appointed Authorised Persons and Officers

Introduction

This Part includes authorisations under the Local Government Act 1995 and other legislation. In most cases, authorisations are made by the Chief Executive Officer under delegated authority, in other cases by the Council itself depending on the requirements of the relevant statute.

Legislation may include an express (written) power for Local Government to appoint an 'authorised person'. An Authorised Person, once appointed, is responsible for fulfilling the powers and duties assigned under law to an Authorised Person, which may be specified or limited in the Certificate of Authorisation.

Legislation does not provide for an Authorised Person to delegate their powers and duties to another person.
